COMEDIAN - COMPERE - VOCALIST

JED STONE

COMEDIAN, COMPERE, VOCALIST, AFTER-DINNER SPEAKER

BIOGRAPHY

After 10 years fronting top comedy showband "Scholar", Jed went solo as a comedian and has never looked back.

He is equally at home on stage in cabaret as he is speaking at sportsmans dinners, he performs at men's stag shows right through to Officers Mess military shows and everything in between.

In 1999 Jed appeared on Sky T.V's "THE COMEDIANS" on Granada Plus to great acclaim. He has also appeared on Central T.V's "JOKER IN THE PACK" with Marti Caine, and "POT OF GOLD" with Des O'Conner, as well as many credits on "RADIO MERSEYSIDE" and BBC "RADIO LANCASHIRE".

He has worked with the best in entertainment "The Three Degrees", "The Drifters", "Stan Boardman", "The Supremes", "Leo Sayer", "Alexander O'Neill", "The Real Thing", "Showaddywaddy", "Hot Chocolate" and "Frank Carson" all in 2002 alone.

On the After-dinner circuit he has worked with such top sporting legends as Jack Charlton, Alan Minter, Dennis Taylor, Tommy Docherty, Billy Bremner (now sadly deceased), George Best, Gordon Banks, Frank Worthington, Willie Thorne, Alex Murphy, Norman Whiteside, Mickey Thomas, Alan Kennedy, Sir Bobby Charlton and many many more.

Jed is always in demand with top corporate clients, including "British Telecom", "Tate and Lyle", "Lufthansa", "Royal Bank of Scotland", "The Labour Party Conference, Blackpool 2002", and "Allied Dunbar" to name but a few.

He has completed highly successful summer seasons for Airtours, Thompson Holidays, British Holidays, Haven Holidays, home and abroad.

His recent tour 2001 of the Middle-East saw him performing to British Ex-pats at The Dubai Marine Hotel, The Airport Hotel, and The Grand Hyatt Hotel in Oman, all top 5 star hotels.

Added to that Jed is also in demand with Her Majesty's armed forces home and abroad, having completed countless tours of Germany and Cyprus during the last 10 years, he works equally well to young Junior ranks as he does to Sergeants and Officers Messes. He was comper / comedian for the massive 3 day Rhine Army Summer Show, 4 years in a row from 1998 to 2001 performing to 3,000 plus every time.

Jed's nutty and cheeky style appeals to all, he is deadly quick but never offensive, naughty but not crude, but best of all he's FUNNY.

Have a great hilarious night out with a star of tomorrow "JED STONE".
