MARLO

About us...

We give all you good people MARLO... The definitive indie/rock covers band. Mark Eyden (Lead guitar, vocals) and Dean Lanza (Lead vocals, Guitar) have been gigging and writing together for 13 years, now 26. What have we done so far?... we've been signed to Polydor with a charting single release (you'll find it in the guinness book of hit singles!), won a BBC1 song writing TV series Get Your Act Together, worked with Gus Dudgeon and Stuart Epps (producers of Bowie, Bill Wyman, Elton John etc.), not to mention doing literally hundreds of gigs, the list goes on and on.

Long term friend of the band, Ant Wheeler (Drums), is our latest member and really does add something spectacular to the rhythm section. We've been doing our bit, giving a rock n roll education to a circuit of universities, clubs, bars and concert venues for eight years. Bands we cover include The Killers, The Arctic Monkeys, The Kaiser Chiefs, The Strokes, Franz Ferdinand, Fratellis and Kasabian. No pissing about with backing tracks or samples, no 'turn up your gain to 11 PRS session musician wankery... This is REAL live music, live, gritty and LOUD! We pride ourselves on sounding uncannily accurate to the artists we cover, and not just playing the songs but delivering them! This is performance, this is rock n roll, this is Marlo!

If you see us playing around your area and love live indie/rock music, make sure you come and see us... it'd be very rude not to. If you're 'of a certain age' or 'have a nervous disposition' it may be advisable to bring your own ear plugs! If you're after a quiet drink and a bit of live 'cabaret' for fucks sake go somewhere else! You'll usually find us around universities and chain club/bars like Tiger Tiger, Oceana, Chicago Rock, Mood, etc. Give them a call or go in and get a band list to find out when we're on next. If we're not on anytime soon in your local venue, tell them they're bastards and ask them why not! If you're a real follower of decent indie/rock music these probably won't be the places you'd normally go! Don't let this put you off... It's always a great night when we're on... we like to call it 'educating the masses'! Not to forget to mention we're still writing and recording our own music under our alter ego band 'My Dead Lovers'.
